

WHAT WE DO

Phaxio (www.phaxio.com) makes faxing almost effortless for software developers.

WHO WE ARE

Josh Nankin, 26, lives in Chicago. Originally from Wisconsin, Josh got his bachelors in computer science from Yeshiva University in 2008 and his masters in computer science from Columbia University in 2009. He's worked at Goldman Sachs, Blackrock, and Yodle.com

Howard Avner, 22, lives in Chicago. Howard got his bachelors in political science at Yeshiva University in 2010. He's worked at Sivik Global Healthcare Fund and the Mike Bloomberg NYC 2010 campaign.

WHERE WE ARE

Phaxio is based in Northbrook, IL - a suburb just north of Chicago. You may recognize it from movies like Ferris Bueller's Day Off, The Breakfast Club and other John Hughes classics.

WHY WE'RE DIFFERENT

- Better API - Our simple API can have a programmer sending faxes with just a couple lines of code.
- No Frills - You won't see crazy graphics, flash videos or sales mumbo-jumbo because Phaxio is built with one type of consumer in mind - developers.
- Pricing - Developers need simple, consistent pricing. Phaxio is 7c, pay-as-you-go. Simple enough?
